ACTIVITIES

Parent Teacher Meeting: PTM meeting was conducted for Kindergarten and classes I-V on 14th October and 21st October respectively.

Gandhi Jayanti Assembly Shramadan activity on 2nd October 2023: While the students of Kindergarten witnessed an assembly conducted by KG II D, the students of classes I to V celebrated the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri with great enthusiasm on 2nd October 2023. The significance of the day was narrated on PA System. Students were briefed about the life teachings of the two great leaders. The importance of cleanliness was emphasized through speeches presented by the students and they also participated in the cleanliness drive which aimed at evoking a sense of cleanliness among them.

World Mental Health week was observed from 3rd to 10th October by the students of KG to Class V: Mental health is universal human right was conveyed to the students, with a series of activities throughout the week. The activities included assembly by I C & III C Yoga, brain exercises, stressing the importance of mental health through a video presentation, PowerPoint presentations, placards, mindfulness activities, Zumba dance and laughter exercises. The takeaway message that mental health is not a destination but a process was taken in the right spirit by the students with a promise to practice the same in daily life.

World Food Day was observed by the students of kindergarten on 16th October 2023 to educate and raise awareness among young students about the importance of food and nutrition. To make the event engaging and interactive, the students of KG I prepared fruit salad, while finger licking good and nutritious sandwiches were made by the KG II children. Beautifully decorated stalls with vegetables and fruits cut-outs were displayed in the auditorium and the children had a wonderful time, serving freshly prepared sandwiches and fruit salad to the staff and their peers. They also enlightened the audience with the importance of healthy food habits and entertained everyone with rhymes and songs.
